Ütebier

Spring Ale

Warmer weather is drawing near, and Legend Brewing Co. is releasing a new ale to revel in the spring season.

For this season's release, Legend married its enthusiasm for classical beer styles and modernized approach to brewing to create the Legend Ütebier. The name Ütebier mirrors the Norwegian Ütepils, but is infused with German character. The Norwegian-style Ütepils loosely translates to 'the first beer you have outside on a sunny day.' We decided to rejuvenate this style to create a unique Ale for the coming of spring. Ütebier pours a deep orange color and the mouthfeel is very crisp. Honey malts evoke a delicate sweetness, which is balanced by the subtle hop bite. Additional Amarillo hops are added towards the end of the boil to bring out a light, tropical aroma.
